The revolutions, uprisings, and rebellions which have convulsed the Arab world have transfixed the world. Please join us for a discussion of these events from the perspective of citizens from countries which have witnessed or are witnessing these epochal changes.

Egypt: Anwar H. Mohamed
(World Cultures Dept., Iowa State University)

Tunisia: Imen Laabidi
(Fulbright Language Teaching Assistant, Arabic House, William & Mary)

Libya: Selwa Sheibani
(Depts. of Arabic & French, Virginia Commonwealth University)

Sudan: Nadia Makkawi
(Dept of Modern Languages, William and Mary)

Thursday  April 21
Tyler 102
5:00 to 7:00 pm

Presented by William &Mary Arabic Program and Middle East Studies with support from the James H. Critchfield Fund